

Trials and Triumphs

Edited by Dr. Paul R. Fetters

Part I: The Beginnings

1752-1800

by Paul A. Graham

1. The Young Missionaries Arrive in America
2. Pietism
3. The Great Awakening on the Frontier
4. Religious Life Among Germans in Colonial America
5. Spiritual Life in the Colonies
6. Martin Boehm
7. George Adam Geeting
8. Philip William Otterbein

Part II: The Church Takes a Name

1800-1841

by Raymond Waldfoegel

9. Characteristics of the Early United Brethren
10. The First Annual Conference
11. A Decade of Development
12. Beginning of the Church in Ohio
13. Loss of Early Leadership
14. Development of a Confession of Faith and a Discipline
15. Church Concerns: 1815-1837
16. Christian Newcomer
17. The Constitution

Part III: The Best and the Worst of Times

1841-1889

by Mary Lou Funk

18. The Ministry
19. Women in the Church
20. United Brethren Meetings
21. Institutions of the Church
22. Unpopular Positions on Moral Issues
23. Discord and Division

Part IV: The Trials and Triumphs

1889-1929

by Harold R. Cherry

24. A Survey of Conditions
25. Litigation
26. Foreign Mission Work Begins Again
27. Our Publishing Work: Troubles and Triumphs
28. College Institutions
29. The Rise of Christian Education Work
30. The Otterbein Forward Movement
31. An Overview of the Period: 1889-1929.

Part V: The Challenges (1929-1981)

1929-1981

by Melvin I. Burkholder

- 32. Context and Culture
- 33. Thought and Theology
- 34. Policy and Procedure
- 35. Outreach and Organization
- 36. Ministry and Ministers
- 37. Concluding Comments

Appendix
Index